

Assignment #3: due Feb 24th
Students' attitude towards reading

1. Now that you have met with your students and begun tutoring, we would like to get a report on their initial attitude towards reading.
2. What is their explicit position: do they like/hate to read or are they somewhere in between? How do they show this in their behavior?
 - a. What part of the tutoring process, and the manual, do they react to positively? Negatively?
 - b. Which stories do they like and understand the best?
 - c. Describe their physical attitude: alert, leaning in, slumped over, collapsed, moving around, jumping up.
 - d. How do they turn the page? Do they follow your reading with your finger? Their finger?
3. Where does the AlphaMonster game place them?
